NEW CASTLE AND FRANKLIN RATIROAD. The friends of the New Castle and Franklin Railroad, Penn., are making arrangements to secure its construction, now that the Jamestown and Franklin road is to be finished forthwith. The route will be from New Castle via Mercer to Blonnsville, where it will intersect the Jamestown and Franklin road. cars have just been put upon the Eric Rail- pose the road. They are represented as being per-fect "palaces on wheels."

The New York Central is having eighty new passenger cars built at Auburn, Albany and Springfield. They will be in a style of insurpassed beauty. There are also twelve new sleeping cars on the road, containing each thirty-two berths and a double set of bridal chambers.
